Piano City 2022, concerts at sunrise and sunset

With the return of Piano City, the most evocative (and popular) events of the widespread music festival that will animate the city of Milan from Friday 20 to Sunday 22 May also return: those at sunrise and sunset. In total there will be about three hundred concerts, with the preview entrusted to singer Francesca Michielin on Thursday evening for an intimate and intense performance on the steps of the Apple Store.

The two concerts at dawn this year will be held at Monte Stella (Saturday at 5 am) and at the Collina dei Ciliegi in Bicocca (Sunday at 5 am), with the notes, respectively, of the jazz player Francesco Grillo who will also offer songs for the occasion. classics, and with the young Alessandro Martire, in a natural context congenial to him.

At sunset, two spectacular concerts are held, the first, Saturday, in the fields of Vaiano Valle, a unique place with a bucolic breath, between the ears of wheat and the surrounding vegetation, to the notes of Francesco Taskayali. The second, Sunday, at an extraordinary height of 160 meters, at the Belvedere on the 39th floor of Palazzo Lombardia, where you can admire the city of Milan and the Lombardy region with a unique view, accompanied by Davide Santacolomba.
